Identity Statement:

Title: Cole Family Papers
 Extent of the unit of description: 1 container; .25 linear feet

Scope & Content / Abstract:

This collection is comprised of records and photographs that document the Dilts family, the Saums and Cole farms, and schools, churches, and theatres in the Voorhees Corner/Three Bridges region of Hunterdon County, NJ.

The collection is contains 13 folders. The first two folders contain church and theatre programs from local institutions. Another folder contains records of Theodore Dilts. There is a series of photographs that capture the Saums and Cole farms, as well as the new highway bridge (ca. 1934) over Rt. 202 (then Rt. 29). Finally, there are several images of the Three Bridges and Voorhees Corner Schools with students. The image of the Voorhees Corner School is of particular interest since it is dated (1912) and identifies every subject in the photograph.

Context:

Administrative / Biographical history: This collection was donated by Robert Cole of Readington Township, NJ. The materials are handed down from branches of his family including the Coles, Potts, and Saums families; the records are predominantly from Readington and Raritan Townships.

System of Arrangement: Subject and material type.

Disposition:Disposition date:*Conditions of Access & Use:

Access conditions: Manuscript collections may only be viewed at the Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library. The Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library, the Library and Archives of the Hunterdon County Historical Society, is open for business every Thursday (except for major holidays), 12 Noon to 4 PM, and the second and fourth Saturday of each month, from 10 AM to 4 PM. Appointments for research purposes may also be pre-arranged with the Society's Executive Director. The retrieval and use of manuscripts, microfilm, and other library materials ends 15 minutes prior to closing time of each open business day.

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
