Identity Statement:

Title: Hageman Family Collection
 Extent of the unit of description: 3 boxes; 1 linear foot

Scope & Content / Abstract:

Scope/Content: The collection is arranged as follows:

Folders 1-6 contain account books and papers relating to Herman Hageman and the Hageman Farm on Hillcrest Road, Readington Township. Folders 7-27 relate to the Pleasant Run area, including an account book of John K. Thompson, and photos and other ephemera from the Pleasant Run School reunions of 1937 and 1938. Folders 28-53 consist of various photographs, including four ferrotypes and two daguerrotypes. The remaining 40 folders consist of photographs from a photo album belonging to Herman Hageman.

Abstract: The collection relates to families of the Pleasant Run section of Readington Township. It consists of 93 folders containing deeds, 5 account books and 83 photographs of several generations of the Hageman family and other allied families of Pleasant Run, in Readington Township, Hunterdon County, NJ ca. 1850 - ca. 1910. Anyone interested in that area of Readington Township, the Pleasant Run School, the Hageman, Thompson or Cole families would find this collection useful.

Context:

Name of Creator: Alice L. Hageman

Administrative / Biographical history: The Hageman Family had lived in Readington Township since the late 18th or early 19th century. Herman and Ester Hageman lived on Hillcrest Road in the Pleasant Run section of Readington Township and had 6 children, two of which, Andrew and Herman, became ministers of the Reformed Church. Herman, born in 1858, married Ritie Amerman in 1883. Herman served as pastor of the Claverack NY Reformed Church for 28 years and died in 1950.

Custodial history: Two ferrotypes (PX184-42 and 184-43) were from accession number 2017.002

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County

Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
