Folder 26 - Ida Bearder at Sand Brook with cat

Identity Statement:

Title: Hunt-Fink Papers
 Dates of creation: ca. 1883 to 1965
 Extent of the unit of description: 1 box; .5 linear ft.

Scope & Content / Abstract:

The Hunt/Fink Collection (ca. 1883-1965). The collection contains papers and photographs accumulated by Samuel LeRoy Hunt (1896-1966). The papers collected include news clippings, postcards and other ephemera. The photographs which comprise the major part of the collection include photos of the Hunt Family, the Henry Fink family, extended family and friends. This collection would be useful to those researching the genealogy of the Hunt and Fink families as well as those interested in life in Stanton, Readington Twp., and Sand Brook, Delaware Twp., in the late 19th and early 20th century.

This collection is composed of 64 folders in one box. The collection is divided into two series. The first series includes newspaper clippings of Samuel Hunt's trip to NYC in 1965; postcards include Hunterdon Co., Trenton and New York City and postcard sets of Easton, PA; Seaside Heights, NJ; Philadelphia, PA; and San Pedro and Redondo Beach, CA. Other ephemera include Samuel Hunt's business card and sales receipts from J.S. Berkaw. Photographs in the first series include those of the Hunt family and friends and the family home.

The second series is comprised of photographs of Henry and Christina (Cook) Fink and their daughter, Ida (Fink) Bearder and their home in Sand Brook, Delaware Twp. The series includes the wedding portrait and invitation of Charles and Ida (Fink) Bearder as well as photographs of various family members, friends, dwellings, and family pets.

Context:

Name of Creator: Hunt, Samuel LeRoy
 Administrative / Biographical history: Samuel Leroy Hunt was born on May 27, 1896 in Stanton, Readington Twp., Hunterdon County, New Jersey. He was one of four children of Andrew and Catherine (Reed) Hunt. Mr. Hunt, who was never married, ran a confectionary shop in Stanton with his mother until her death in 1956. Afterward, Samuel worked in a variety of jobs. He was the custodian in the Deats building where he also resided; he shoveled snow on Main Street, and he ran his own chair caning business. (His business card can be found in the collection.) Mr. Hunt made the local news when he traveled to New York City for the first time on his 70th birthday in 1965. Mr. Hunt died on June 11, 1966. He was the last known surviving member of his family.

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
