Three Rousing Cheers!!! For the Fall Meeting

The 15th New Jersey Volunteer Infantry, which lost 240 men killed in action, may justly lay claim to being the state's "fightingest" Civil War regiment. This tragic statistic also ranks the outfit twelfth of more than 2,000 Union infantry regiments. The 15th's story is newly retold in Joseph G. Bilby's Three Rousing Cheers: A History of the 15th New Jersey Infantry from Flemington To Appomattox.... Mustered in at Flemington in August 1862, the regiment saw its first battle action at Fredericksburg (Seeing the Elephant) in the vernacular of the day) and went on from there to Salem Church, the Wilderness, Spotsylvania, Cold Harbor, Winchester, the Opequon, Cedar Creek, and Petersburg. The 15th's heaviest casualties occurred at Spotsylvania where its battle monument today lists its loss at 302 of the 444 it engaged there.

Mr. Bilby will review his book and the research that developed it at our Fall Meeting at 2 p.m. on Sunday, 21 November in the Flemington Womens Club building in the town park behind the courthouse. Having seen the elephant himself as an infantry officer in Vietnam, he writes with a veteran's perspective that highlights the personal stories of a number of individuals of the unit, including Hunterdon's Major Lambert Boeman and 1st Sergeant Paul Kuhl, who were killed in action at Cedar Creek and Spotsylvania; sixteen year old Lieutenant Ellis Hamilton, perhaps the youngest commissioned officer in the Union army; and Hazard Stanford, one of a number of Rebel deserters who later joined the regiment. Sergeant Kuhl's letters and the diary of Adjutant Edmund Halsey were among the major sources of information on the 15th.

New Jersey native Joseph G. Bilby, who served as an officer in the 1st Infantry Division in Vietnam, had an ancestor who served in the 15th N.J. Mr. Bilby received his BA and MA degrees in history from Seton Hall University and is a contributing editor and columnist for a number of Civil War publications. An acknowledged expert on New Jersey's military role in the Civil War, he has lectured widely on the subject, making presentations to groups such as the Morris County Historical Society and the Robert E. Lee Roundtable in Woodbridge. Bilby, who is employed by the New Jersey Department of Labor, has also taught military history at the Community College level.

Three Rousing Cheers... features a complete unit roster, notes, bibliography, individual soldier biographies, 20 maps and over 100 illustrations, including more than 60 portraits of the regiment's members. It is the first full length study of the 15th in 110 years, and is based on a wide range of newspaper accounts, unpublished records, and numerous letters, diaries, and memoirs. Books will be available for sale at the meeting and Mr. Bilby has agreed to autograph them there.

Come to the Fall meeting of the Hunterdon County Historical Society at 2 p.m. at the Flemington Womens Club on Sunday, 21 November and hear the story of one of the war's more remarkable regiments. Get yourself a glimpse of the elephant.

1994 Membership Dues

The Board of Trustees, with great reluctance, voted to increase membership dues for the calendar year 1994, beginning 1 October 1993. Charged with the responsibility of managing the Society's affairs, the Trustees felt obliged to raise dues as one measure in balancing the Society's budget. Maintenance, operation, and staffing of the Doric House and Deats Library, combined with low interest rates, resulted in an projected income shortage in the Society's 1993 budget. The revised annual membership is $15, family membership $18, and Life membership $250.

Your continued support of the Society by your membership is appreciated.

Priority for selecting structures to be recorded depended on their significance and danger of destruction. With this as a basis, measured drawings were made of each structure and photographs taken under the supervision of the district coordinator. The first published guide to HABS records, Historic American Building Survey: Catalog of the Measured Drawings and Photographs in the Survey in the Library of Congress, March 1, 1941, was compiled and edited by the National Park Service, Newton B. Drury, Director, and published in Washington, DC, in 1941.

The drawings and photographs created by HABS for the following Hunterdon County structures were purchased by the Historical Society in 1965, funded in part with a grant from the Clinton Womens Club.
