

Manuscript Collection No. 53; the Hauptman Trial.

Collection includes a variety of materials documenting the Hauptman Trial (the Lindbergh Kidnapping Case) in Flemington, NJ, as follows:

Box 1: Principally documents of the Hunterdon County Democrat, clippings, typescripts for articles, and correspondence.

Also material from other newspapers and magazines.

Claimants to the Lindbergh name.

F.B.I. Correspondence.

Box 2: James P. and Thomas Kelly (private investigation).

F.B.I. reports and correspondence, material relating to fingerprints, wooden ladders, ransom note, and other miscellaneous materials.

Clippings, Police reports, claimant to the Lindbergh Name, and other miscellaneous materials.

No inclusive record dates for this collection are given; please see the collection inventory for further details.