

Manuscript Collection No. 59; the David L. Ringo Collection

Collection includes the papers and records of David L. Ringo, as follows:

Box 1: Chronological outline for story, background on town, animal, vegetation and Indians in No. Hunt. Co. Narrative of "Old Ringoes" with maps, land deeds, and notes.

Box 2: Correspondence and research material on Revolutionary War from N.J. Archives, Pennsylvania Mag., and Pioneers of old Hopewell. Lee Papers from N.Y. Hist. Soc., Battles of Trenton and Princeton, material from Enc. Of American Revolution, and genealogical and biographical notes for story, "Whatever Happened to the Ringos?"

Box 3: "Whatever Happened to the Ringos?" narrative. Copies of photos for "Tavern at the Crossroads." Correspondence; Erica M. Revis, Joe Felcone, Gail Richardson, Effingham P. Humphrey, Jr. Notes on Dawlis/Race Mill, Stony Brook Mill, Glenmoore Mill, Pioneers of Old Hopewell, Weiss' Early Grist and Flouring Mills, Deed Extracts, Extracts of Hunt. Co. Court Order Books, 1-4, 1721-1738.

Box 4: Accounts of wills in Amwell Twp., Cook family, notes on Corwine and Van Amburgh families. Notes from Colonial Conveyances, Boyer's Old Inns and Taverns, Old Ringoes and draft of "Whatever Happened to the Ringos?" Extracts from Tavern Licenses, names and deed notes from West Jersey Deed Book. Names from Revel's Survey Book A and West Jersey Proprietors Office.

Box 5: Original of speech, "Whatever Happened to the Ringos?" Genealogical and biographical notes on persons in the narrative.

Box 6: Alphabetized genealogical and biographical notes on the persons in the narrative.

Box 7: Alphabetized genealogical and biographical notes on the persons in the narrative.

Box 8: Alphabetized genealogical and biographical notes on the persons in the narrative.

Notes and Correspondence; misc. from Gen. Mag. Of N.J., Hist. Facts for coat of arms for Amwell Twp., to N.Y. Hist. Soc. for Erskine maps, Dolores Jessop, Donald Tyler, Joseph Felcone, Ricky Bevis, Roxanne Carkhuff, Gordon Hillgartner, Margery Grover.

No inclusive record dates for this collection are given; please see the collection inventory for further details.

8 boxes; this collection is not available on microfilm.