

Manuscript Collection No. 63; the Maud L. Wilson Collection II.

Collection includes more of the papers and records of Maud L. Wilson, as follows:

Box 1: Historical and genealogical correspondence.

History of churches in Hunterdon County and correspondence.

Box 2: World War I articles, Jimson farm, Hunterdon County Historical Society correspondence, Reading Academy, Betsy Ross, Flemington High Alumni Reunion, correspondence from Nellie Thatcher and Mrs. Alfred Bellis, Pittstown, and Moore Furman.

Box 3: Peddie School ephemera of Maud L. Wilson.

Box 4: Interchurch Children's Choir: Minutes of meeting, Treasurer's reports, rules and regulations, lists of students, programs and notes, newspaper articles, and correspondence [1937-1948].

Box 5: Interchurch Children's Choir: Minutes of meeting, Treasurer's reports, rules and regulations, lists of students, programs and notes, newspaper articles, and correspondence [1949-1954].

Box 6: Interchurch Children's Choir: Minutes of meeting, Treasurer's reports, rules and regulations, lists of students, programs and notes, newspaper articles, and correspondence [1955-1961].

Box 7: Interchurch Children's Choir: Minutes of meeting, Treasurer's reports, rules and regulations, lists of students, programs and notes, newspaper articles, and correspondence [1962-1964].

7 boxes; this collection is not available on microfilm.