Identity Statement:

Title: C. Lloyd Fell Papers
 Extent of the unit of description: 3 boxes; 2 linear feet

Scope & Content / Abstract:

3 Boxes of records relating to C. Lloyd Fell. Fell was Hunterdon County Clerk from 1925 until his death in 1939 as well as being very active in many fraternal and community organizations throughout Hunterdon County, and these records appear to be a mix of his personal and official business papers.

Materials include receipts, invoices and other financial records, pamphlets, correspondence, notes, news clippings, photographs, legal correspondence, campaign materials, and papers and correspondence relating to the handling of several estates and funerals, including those of Jacob and Mary Bowlby and Mary Alpaugh. Numerous papers including correspondence, programs, rosters and brochures relating to the many organizations in which Fell was active provide insight into this civic-minded individual and his causes. This collection roughly covers the dates ca. 1890-1939.

Context:

Name of Creator: C. Lloyd Fell

Administrative / Biographical history: Charles Lloyd Fell was born on December 4, 1866 to William Henry Fell and Hannah A. Scarborough Fell. He was a clerk in the law offices of Edward P. Conkling of Flemington and a station agent at Flemington Junction Station before beginning work in the Hunterdon County Clerk's office in 1917; he successfully ran for the office of County Clerk in 1925 and was re-elected in 1930 and 1935. As clerk, he was prominently involved in the two most famous trials held in Hunterdon County, the John Hughes Curtis case in 1932 and the Hauptmann trial in 1935, for which Fell received the jury's verdict sentencing Bruno Richard Hauptmann to death. Active in multiple fraternal and community organizations throughout Hunterdon and Mercer Counties, Fell was a 32nd Degree Mason and a Grand Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star and very active in the Flemington and Lambertville chapters of those organizations, in addition to being a member of the Flemington Rotary Club, the Hunterdon County YMCA, Treasurer of the Flemington Water Company, Trustee at the Somerset Hospital in Somerville, NJ, and Treasurer of the Hunterdon Red Cross. Fell died on November 14, 1939. (source: Hunterdon County Democrat, Nov. 16, 1939)

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
