Identity Statement:

Title: Readington Glass Plate Negative Collection
 Dates of creation: ca. 1916
 Extent of the unit of description: 2 linear feet in 3 glass plate storage boxes and 1 archive box

Scope & Content / Abstract:

Abstract: The collection primarily consists of 91 glass plate negatives of people and places in and around the Readington Village section of Readington Township, New Jersey. All images were photographed by Daniel B. Cole of Readington around 1916. The collection also contains two (2) compact discs containing digital images of 54 of the photographs in the collection, developed out prints of 54 of the photographs, and two (2) Microsoft Publisher files of a history of the Readington Reformed Church on the occasion of its 275th anniversary along with many of the photographs. The compact discs, prints and Publisher files were created around 2002-2003

Scope and Content: The subjects of the photographs depict life in Readington in the early part of the 20th century. Subjects include farm scenes, houses and outbuildings, the Readington Reformed Church and people. People photographed include members of the Lane, Hageman, Robinson, Van Pelt, Vail, Welch, Cole, Hardenberg, Davis, Mattison, Wycoff, Cox and Apgar families. Researchers interested in the history and architecture of Readington Township or genealogists researching Readington families will find this collection useful.

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County

Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
