Folder 1 - Richards Residence

Identity Statement:

Title: Miller/Stothoff Photographs
 Extent of the unit of description: 1 box; .5 c.f.

Scope & Content / Abstract:

Abstract: A collection of postcards, photographic prints and other ephemera relating primarily to Flemington and Readington Township, in particular the Three Bridges section collected by Thelma Miller. The collection contrasts photographs of subjects from the late 19th and early to mid-20th century with those same subjects in the 1990's. This collection would interest anyone researching Flemington and Readington Township, as well as historic preservationists.

Scope & Content: This collection is composed of 83 folders in one box.

The collection includes:

- Postcards of early 20th century Flemington and Readington, including noteworthy buildings, industry, churches and landmarks
- Photographs of Flemington, including noteworthy houses and landmarks
- Photographs of Readington Township, including the Centerville Stagecoach Barn, Rowlands Mill (in Higginsville), and historic bridges over the South Branch at Higginsville and Rockefeller's Mill
- Photographs of Three Bridges, including most businesses extant at the start of the 20th century, the Lehigh Valley Railroad and Central Railroad of New Jersey facilities, and significant buildings.

Context:

Name of Creator: Thelma Kline Miller; Richard Stothoff

Administrative / Biographical history: Thelma Kline Miller was born in Three Bridges, Readington Township in 1916, the daughter of David and Ethel Higgins Kline. She graduated from Flemington high School in 1935 and was employed at the Flemington Auction Market and at American Cyanamid in Bound Brook. She was also a secretary for the Three Bridges School, retiring in 1981.

Mrs. Miller was the unofficial historian of Three Bridges. She compiled numerous scrapbooks about events in the area of Three Bridges and other parts of Hunterdon County commencing in the 1930's. She was also known for her massive collection of "cultural history" about Charles Lindbergh, his life, his famous flight and the kidnapping of his son and subsequent trial.

Mrs. Miller died January 29, 2005 at the age of 88.

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
