Title: Opinion, New Hope Delaware Bridge Company
Dates of creation: 1832
Extent of the unit of description: 1 Item; .01 linear ft.

Scope & Content / Abstract:

This collection is composed of one document. New Hope Delaware Bridge Company. "Opinions of George Wood and Nathaniel Saxton, Esquires, as to the Question, Whether the New Hope Delaware Bridge Company Have Banking Privileges." 1832.

Context:

Administrative / Biographical history: The New Hope Delaware Bridge Company, Incorporated in 1812, was chartered to construct and operate a bridge over the Delaware River, and make a profit for the shareholders. The company ran into financial difficulty in 1826. In order to restore confidence in the company and to attract further investment, the company sought to establish banking privileges. To do this, it sought legal opinion to justify the action and to further increase confidence in the Company Board.

Disposition:Disposition date:*Conditions of Access & Use:

Access conditions: Manuscript collections may only be viewed at the Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library. The Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library, the Library and Archives of the Hunterdon County Historical Society, is open for business every Thursday (except for major holidays), 10 AM to 4 PM, and the second and fourth Saturday of each month, from 10 AM to 4 PM. Appointments for research purposes may also be pre-arranged with the Society's Executive Director. The retrieval and use of manuscripts, microfilm, and other library materials ends 15 minutes prior to closing time of each open business day.

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
