Title: Egbert T. Bush Papers II
 Extent of the unit of description: 1 box; .5 linear feet

Scope & Content / Abstract:

This collection comprises a further addition of the personal papers of Mr. Egbert T. Bush, ranging from 1874-1933. The collection includes account books, notes from his father, map tracings, and pamphlets and booklets from various organizations to which he belonged. This collection is meant to be an addendum to the already existing papers of Mr. Bush (Collection No. 83), which provides valuable insights into the history of southern Hunterdon County and many of the families who lived there.

Context:

Name of Creator: Egbert T. Bush
 Administrative / Biographical history: Egbert Trimmer Bush was born on June 21, 1848 to Sidney L. and Elizabeth McPherson Bush on a farm about a mile above Croton. Largely self-taught, Mr. Bush earned his teaching certificate, then served many schools in the area, including Croton, Klinsville, Cherryville, Mount Pleasant and Van Dolah's. In addition to teaching, Mr. Bush owned a peach farm during the late 1880's until the early 1900's. He was a published author and poet; in addition to a regular column in the Hunterdon County Democrat, his stories and essays appeared in many periodicals and his book of poetry, When Leaves Grow Old, was published in 1916. Mr. Bush married Sarah Eleanor Willson in 1871. They were married for 51 years until Mrs. Bush died in 1922. They were blessed with two children: Percy W. and Evelyn B. (Bush) Johnson. Mr. Bush died on November 12, 1937 at the age of 89.

Structure:Disposition:*Disposition date:*Conditions of Access & Use:

Access conditions: Manuscript collections may only be viewed at the Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library. The Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library, the Library and Archives of the Hunterdon County Historical Society, is open for business every Thursday (except for major holidays), 10 AM to 4 PM, and the second and fourth Saturday of each month, from 10 AM to 4 PM. Appointments for research purposes may also be pre-arranged with the Society's Executive Director. The retrieval and use of manuscripts, microfilm, and other library materials ends 15 minutes prior to closing time of each open business day.

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
