Fall Meeting Features Fulper Pottery Expert

Gordon W. Gray will be the guest speaker at the Fall Meeting on Sunday, November 21. Mr. Gray, a native of New Jersey, has conducted extensive research into the trademark system employed by the Fulper Pottery Company of Flemington and Trenton, for the years 1909-1935.

Examples from Mr. Gray's art pottery collection have appeared in 19 Century Magazine, The American Craft Council Portable Library and the 1978 Delaware Art Museum exhibition American Art Pottery 1875-1930. His entire Fulper collection can be viewed at the upcoming exhibition, Fulper: The Potter's Art, at the Montclair Art Museum, Montclair, New Jersey, March 27 through June 16, 1983.

Mr. Gray received a B.S. degree in Biochemistry and a minor in Genetics from the University of New Hampshire in 1974. He has been employed at Princeton University since 1974 where he is involved in the Sciences and Arts.

The meeting on November 21, will be held in the Meeting Room of the Flemington Methodist Church, beginning at 2 p.m. Following Mr. Gray's presentation, refreshments will be served. The Society's meetings are open to the public and all are welcome to attend.

Veteran employee of the Fulper Pottery Company, John Kunsman, celebrating his 50th anniversary with the Company in 1939, recalled a real boom to the business occurred when William H. Fulper and he decided to introduce a selection of art pieces.

Mr. Kunsman, working for his own amusement, turned out several small vases and other art pieces which he displayed in a window of the "pot shop" and quickly sold. Popularity of the art ware prompted Mr. Fulper to produce and offer the new line which held its appeal for more than 20 years. During his later years Mr. Kunsman toured the country for the Company demonstrating the art of pottery making.

HUNTERDON'S LAST VETERANS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

TWO JACOB WILLIAMSONS

Two Revolutionary War patriots bearing the name Jacob Williamson, both receiving pensions, survived to be singled out and counted in the 1840 United States Federal Census of Amwell Township, Hunterdon County. Jacob Williamson, Esquire, was 80 years old and Jacob Williamson, Senior, was 86 years old. A short profile of each Jacob Williamson will aid in distinguishing one from the other.

JACOB WILLIAMSON, ESQUIRE

Eligibility for the aforementioned pensions was based on circumstances at application, tours of duty during the years of the Revolutionary War and the requirements of Congressional Acts under which pensions were sought. Jacob Williamson, Esquire, made his declaration of service on August 18, 1832, before John Barton, Richard Coxe and Benjamin Egbert, Justices of the Hunterdon County Court of Common Pleas, in order to obtain benefits under the Acts of Congress passed June 7, 1832. He was then aged seventy-two years and a resident of the Clover Hill area of Amwell Township. Under oath he stated, "That in the year 1776 in the month of June this deponent then an apprentice to the blacksmiths' trade with one Jacob Decker of Harbourn town, since deceased, at the age of seventeen or thereabouts entered the service of the United States as a drafted militia man in a Militia Company commanded by Captain Henry Phillips of the Township of Hopewell. . . That they marched from the Township of Hopewell through New Brunswick (where they first heard the Declaration of Independence read) to Perth Amboy in New Jersey and lay there one month."

As detailed in his affidavit, Jacob Williamson, Esquire, continued to serve tours of duty under Captain Phillips. He was later called to Elizabethtown where Col. Frederick Freylinghuysen took command of the militia during which tour the British troops moved from Staten Island to New Jersey and the Americans retreated toward Springfield, being pursued part of the way. He recalled that Captain Lock of Amwell Township was killed by the British. He served another month under General Heard who had command at the signal (beacon signal) of a tar barrel burning at Steller's Gap in Somerset County.

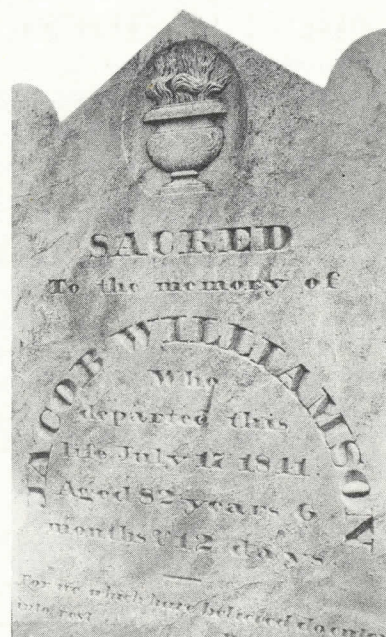

After this tour Jacob Williamson, Esquire, believed he moved into Amwell Township and continued to serve one-month tours, including one during the Battle of Monmouth in June 1778.

Based on his detailed affidavit of service a Certificate of Pension was issued on February 15, 1834 and his name was placed on the New Jersey pension rolls at the annual rate of $40, beginning March 31, 1831. Arrears for two and one half years and his semi-annual allowance were paid to him with issuance of the pension certificate.

By his own recollection, Jacob Williamson, Esquire, moved into Amwell Township in 1778. He may have been the single man of that name who resided with Cornelius Quick when Amwell Township's Assessor, John Lambert, prepared his tax list in 1780. Mr. Quick and Mary Williamson had been married ten years earlier, in 1770, so he may have been Jacob Williamson's step-father or brother-in-law.

A marriage license was obtained by Jacob in 1785 to wed Hannah Ten Brook. Several years thereafter, he purchased William Chamberlin's mill property near Clover Hill when Chamberlin removed to Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. Tax ratables for the year 1807 make reference to Jacob Williamson, Miller, owning 72 acres of land, four horses, 3 cattle, one saw mill and 1 grist mill, 1 slave and a riding chair. On this real and personal property, he paid tax amounting to $46.88.

Presumably, Jacob, Esquire, continued to receive a yearly pension until his death which occurred on July 17, 1841. His obituary notice related that his death occurred in the 83rd year of his age and that he had served in the Army of the Revolution and afterward settled in Amwell Township. He had for many years been a member and officer of the German Reformed Church. Curiously, he was buried in Pleasant Ridge cemetery, located on the former site of the First Amwell Presbyterian Church, as were several other members of his family.

His widow, Martha, sought a pension under an Act of Congress passed January 3, 1853, granting pensions to widows of persons who served during the Revolutionary War. She appeared before Judge Joseph Brown, an officer of the Hunterdon County Courts, on July 20, 1853, and made declaration that she was pensioner Jacob Williamson's widow, that she had married him on June 22, 1813, and that his death had occurred July 17, 1841, and she had remained his widow since then. A Certificate of Pension was issued three months later with the rate of pension fixed at $40 annually. To substantiate her claim, Mrs. Williamson had submitted a family record, kept by her in which she recorded her marriage to Charles Suydam on October 7, 1801, his death on November 21, 1812 at age 63 years, her marriage to Jacob Williamson on June 22, 1813 and the subsequent birth of their three children.

Thereafter, on March 30, 1855, Martha Williamson made application for bounty land due on account of her deceased husband's Revolutionary War service. She was allowed 160 acres on Warrant #26211. No attempt was made to determine the location of this 160 acre parcel.

THE FAMILY OF JACOB WILLIAMSON, ESQUIRE

Jacob Williamson, Esquire, died 17 July 1841, aged 82 years, 6 months, 12 days and was interred in Pleasant Ridge cemetery, Raritan Township, Hunterdon County. He married first on 22 March 1785 Hannah Ten Brook. She died November 1811, aged 59 years, 11 months, 8 days and was also interred in Pleasant Ridge cemetery. They were parents of one daughter, Mary. Jacob Williamson, Esquire, married second on 22 June 1813, Martha Baldwin, widow of Charles Suydam. She died 8 March 1863, aged 85 years, 7 months, 9 days and was interred in Pleasant Ridge cemetery.

- i. Mary Williamson, born 5 January 1786, died 29 October 1836, interred in Pleasant Ridge cemetery, married Abraham C. Van Doren.
- ii. Hannah Williamson, born 23 August 1814, married Dennis Van Lieu.
- iii. Jacob Suydam Williamson, born 1 February 1816, died 8 August 1860, married Catherine Duryea, died August 1889, aged 74 years, 11 months, 1 day. Both were interred in Pleasant Ridge Cemetery.
- iv. Gertrude Van Deveer Williamson, born 29 June 1818, died 10 November 1904, married Dr. George P. Rex, born 2 September 1813, died 12 July 1889. Both were interred in Pleasant Ridge cemetery.

JACOB WILLIAMSON, SENIOR

In his original affidavit before Judge Elnathan Stevenson on April 7, 1818, Jacob Williamson, Senior, recalled joining the Revolutionary Army toward the last of May 1778, and that his 9-month enlistment was served under Captain Jeremiah Ballard in the Third Regiment of the Jersey Line. His discharge, he stated, had been lost or misplaced. He gave his age as about 63 years and said he had been a resident of Amwell Township since leaving the army.

His claim of service, in order to secure a pension, may be corroborated by records of the New Jersey Continental Line. One of these manuscripts, a list of recruits raised in Hunterdon County to serve in the foot militia, is dated May 27, 1778. The seventh name on this list was Jacob Williamson, recorded as a resident of Amwell Township, age 23 years, of fair "complexion" with light hair, 5 feet, 4 inches tall. Private Williamson joined on May 28, to serve in the Third Regiment, Captain Ballard's Company. He served his term and was discharged at Elizabethtown February 1779. Before entering the Continental Army he served tours of duty in the Hunterdon militia during 1776 and 1777 under Captains Cornelius Hoppock, Philip Snook, John Snook and Nathan Stout, with whom he served at the Battle of Van Neste's Mill in January 1777.

Ten years after making his first affidavit, Jacob Williamson, Senior, came into the County Court of Common Pleas in October 1828 to make a declaration in order to be placed on the pension roll under the Acts of Congress passed March 18, 1818. He stated he had not made application earlier because of a misunderstanding of the law by the person to whom he gave his papers. He claimed assets of $173 and debts due of $98.00. He owned "16 acres of rough mountain land" which he valued at $8 per acre and personal property. His family "consists of himself, aged seventy-four years, who is a taylor by trade but unable to follow it from dimness of sight, his wife Rachel, aged seventy-seven years who is unable to gane her support on account of her infirmities" and he claimed no income or other property except that previously mentioned.

A Certificate of Pension was issued January 2, 1839 to him and the rate was fixed at $8 per month payable on a semi-annual basis.

On the earliest extant list of tax ratables for Amwell Township, dated January-February 1780, Jacob Williamson, Senior, appears as a householder with 16 improved acres, most likely the same 16 acres mentioned in his pension claim. Despite a diligent search of public records in the Hunterdon County Clerk's office, no document recording either purchase or sale of a 16 acre plot by him has been discovered. Throughout his lifetime Jacob, Senior, purchased and disposed of three other small lots, possibly woodlots. The 16 acres, probably his homestead, may have been divided and sold in smaller parcels as additional funds were required to maintain himself and his wife, Rachel. In 1834 the couple conveyed 5¾ acres to Amos Snook. Margaret Boughner was the purchaser of 6 acres from the couple in 1839. Conveyance of the remaining 5 acres has not yet been found despite investigation of land transactions by in-laws and grandchildren of Jacob Williamson, Senior.

Jacob's name occurs on subsequent tax lists and on one such list, dated 1803, his occupation is noted as "taylor". The location of his property is specifically stated on an 1807 list as New Market which today may be identified on maps as Linvale and/or Snyderstown in East Amwell Township. In that year Jacob, Senior, was the owner of 27 acres, 2 horses and 2 cattle for which his tax amounted to $9.99.

A clue to Jacob, Senior's parentage occurs in a bond he signed in 1793 as one of the administrators for the estate of the late William Snook. Reference was made within the document to Jacob Williamson, "son of Derrick." Richard, the English equivalent of the Dutch christian name Derrick, was the name chosen by Jacob and Rachel for their first son.

In 1802 Richard Williamson was licensed to "travel on foot as a Pedlar" and he and his father posted security in the amount of $70 to guarantee good behavior to "well and truly perform all matters and things and observe the directions prescribed by law respecting Hawkers, Pedlers, and Petty Chapman. . ."

The following year another of Jacob's sons, Samuel, applied to the Court of Quarter Sessions for a Pedlar's license. His petition signed by eight men from the New Market area, was acted upon favorably and a bond was executed by Samuel and Jacob, to guarantee Samuel's behavior.

Rachel Williamson, Jacob's wife of 73 years, died March 24, 1847 in her 96th year. She was laid to rest in the Amwell United Presbyterian cemetery at Larison's Corner in East Amwell Township. Jacob survived his wife, death occurring on October 17, 1848 at the age of 94 years and he was buried beside her. Five stones in a single row mark the graves of Williamson family members. A son, William, was interred there in 1855 and daughter, Sarah Snook in 1861. Sarah Snook's daughter, Mary Campbell died in 1886 at age 80 and was buried beside her mother.

The tombstone inscriptions in this cemetery were copied in 1918 and published in Tombstone Inscriptions from Hunterdon County Cemeteries. Whether by typographical error in publishing or by misreading "4" for "1" in making inscriptions, the death dates of Jacob and Rachel were recorded as having occurred in 1817 and 1818 instead of 1847 and 1848. Jacob's stone is so weathered reading is very difficult. Rachel's tombstone is readable, the inscription clearly being 1847. This same error was made on the tombstone inscription of this couple's son, Amos, who is buried in the Second Amwell Presbyterian cemetery at Mt. Airy. He died in 1849, but his inscription is recorded in the above book with the date, 1819.

Jacob Williamson, Senior, by his last will and testament, written in February 1848, devised $50 each to Sarah Snook, widow; Samuel Williamson; Amy Snook; and Abigail Abbott and the residue of the estate went to John Williamson, whom Jacob appointed executor.

THE FAMILY OF JACOB WILLIAMSON, SENIOR

Jacob Williamson, Senior, born 1755, died 17 October 1848, married 11 December 1775 Rachel Corwine. She died 24 March 1847 in her 96th year. Both are interred in Larison's Corner cemetery. Their children:

- i. Richard Williamson, died 4 April 1834, aged 57 years, married 24 December 1806 Sarah Williamson. She died 26 May 1856, aged 70 years. Both interred in Larison's Corner cemetery.
- ii. William Williamson, born 7 December 1777, died 30 April 1855, interred in Larison's Corner cemetery. Unmarried.
- iii. Sarah Williamson, died 30 September 1861, aged 82 years, interred in Larison's Corner cemetery, married Philip Snook. He died 1823.
- iv. Samuel Williamson, born circa 1782, married on 16

- October 1808 Margaret Dilts.
- v. Isaac Williamson, died 6 May 1825 at age 43 years, married on 8 April 1805 Mary Labaw. She died 11 November 1858 at age 76 years. Both were interred in the Harborton cemetery.
 - vi. Abigail Williamson, born circa 1788, married on 28 July 1810 William Abbott.
 - vii. Amy Williamson, born February 1790, died 20 August 1862, aged 83 years, 3 months, 8 days, married on 24 April 1821 Peter G. Snook who died 24 April 1874 aged 85 years, 3 months, 8 days. Both were interred in Larisons's Corner cemetery.
 - viii. Amos Williamson, born 18 December, 1792, died 23 December 1849 aged 57 years, 7 days, married 24 June 1823 Sarah Waters. She died 5 April 1846, aged 46 years, 10 months. Both were interred in Mt. Airy Presbyterian cemetery.
 - ix. John Williamson, born 14 February 1795, married Jane Stryker. She died 22 September 1845 aged 47 years, 10 months, 20 days and was interred in Mt. Airy Presbyterian cemetery.
