Title: Grandin Family Papers, 1709-1965
 Extent of the unit of description: 5 boxes plus one flat file drawer; 3.5 c.f.

Scope & Content / Abstract:

This collection contains business and personal correspondence of the Grandin family of Clinton, NJ, from approximately 1709 to 1965. Most of the records date from 1800 to 1920. The highlights of the collection include medical records and the journal account of John F. Grandin from 3 March 1782 to 25 January 1783 while sailing on a Privateer.

Other interesting groups of records include personal family correspondence of Elizabeth Grandin, John Grandin (1721-1777), John F. Grandin (1760-1811), John F. Grandin (1827-1889), Mary Grandin Newell (1762-1849) and Philip Grandin (1731-1791); financial records and genealogical papers.

This collection would interest anyone researching either the Grandin family in particular or the household and farm life of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century.

Context:

Dates of accumulation: 1709-1965

Name of Creator: Grandin Family, Clinton, NJ

Administrative / Biographical history: Elizabeth Grandin (1889-1970) was born in Hamden, NY, but later came to live in New Jersey. A descendent of the influential Grandin family, one of Hunterdon County's oldest families, Grandin attended Miss Dana's School in Morristown NJ and later studied in Paris, New York, and Madrid. She operated art studios in both Paris and New York City, and maintained an apartment in Greenwich Village for many years.

In mid-career, Ms. Grandin returned to Clinton, Hunterdon County, to care for her ailing sister and remained there for the rest of her life. She settled in Clinton, and was instrumental in opening the Grandin Library, and also taught art classes at her art studio. She was very active in Clinton and the surrounding area and was a supportive member of the community until her death in 1970.

Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication and Use

Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
