Title	Marjorie Ladd Saxe Papers I, 1876-1980	Year Range	1876-1980

Location Doric House: Vault 1

Description The collection comprises published works, Mrs. Saxe's notes and papers on Centerville history, and photographs of houses and other landmarks in Centerville and people having a connection to the village. Centerville is a village of Readington Township, located along the Old York Road. It received the name "Centerville" due to its being the midpoint and therefore the overnight rest stop of the "Swift Sure Stage Line" between New York City and Philadelphia.

The Marjorie Ladd Saxe Papers I consist of: (i) 10 published works; (ii) 17 folders of handwritten or typed materials; and (iii) 20 photographs. The collection provides information on Centerville and Readington Township history, the families who lived there and the types of lives they led.
