Description This collection consists of papers related the Large Family and their experience within Hunterdon County from the late 1800s through 2014. The collection contains documents for the Large Family such as school records, Flemington Presbyterian Church publications, and Church School documents. There are also other documents related to Hunterdon County life such as the Hunterdon Medical Center expansion and the Flemington Summer School of Music. In many of the folders are notes from Catherine Large O'Shea Wetstein explaining her family's role with an organization or their history. The collection also contains a number of unidentified photographs and negatives of individuals in a family setting.

This collection would interest anyone interested in Hunterdon County especially in regards to local school during the 1950s and 1960s and the Flemington Presbyterian Church during the 1950-1970s.

Access conditions: Manuscript collections may only be viewed at the Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library, the Library and Archives of the Hunterdon County Historical Society during open business hours. The retrieval and use of manuscripts, microfilm, and other library materials ends 15 minutes prior to closing time of each open business day. Please check the society website at hunterdonhistory.org for current hours. Copyright and Conditions governing reproduction: Statement on Copyright and Fair Use The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
