| Location    | Archives Building: A: 17   |              |                    |
| Description | This collection is comprised of the contents of the family photographic album of J.P. Bodine. It includes predominantly egg albumen and ferrotype images of members of the J.P. Bodine family. Very few of the individual family members are individually identified, and the images appear to be from ca. 1875 to 1906. In addition to researchers of the Bodine family, this collection may be of interest to those interested in vintage fashion including clothes, jewelry, hairstyles and men's facial hair styles. |              |                    |

Conditions
Governing
Access

Manuscript collections may only be viewed at the Hiram E. Deats Memorial Library during open library hours. Appointments for research purposes may also be pre-arranged with the Society's Executive Director. The retrieval and use of manuscripts, microfilm, and other library materials ends 15 minutes prior to closing time of each open business day.

Conditions
Reproduction
Copyright

Statement on Copyright and Fair Use
The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law. Publication and Use Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage
