Location Archives Building: A: 24

Description The Hildebrandt-Apgar Photograph Collection consists of over two hundred photographs in three containers and one oversized container. Most photographs are undated, but appear to have been taken in the late 19th century early 20th century, with most having been taken around the turn of the century. Most of these photographs are studio portraits of individuals or couples. Other photos in the collection consist of miscellaneous pictures showing everyday life, family outings and get-togethers, and social events. Most photos are not identified, but some include names and dates.

This collection would be of use to those researching the Hildebrandt-Apgar families, or to those interested in clothing and hairstyles of the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
