Description The first part of this collection (box 1 and box 2 folders 1-10) includes material relating to D. Howard Moreau's capacity as editor and publisher of The Hunterdon Democrat. Material includes editorial correspondence, including letters to Mr. Moreau regarding "The Regional High School Question"; manuscripts for Hubert G. Schmidt's weekly newspaper column, "Historically Speaking," which he published for 150 weeks; "Lindbergh Comes To The Village" manuscript by Elizabeth Van Fleet Vosseller; and a sketch and related material regarding Civil War Major Lambert Boeman.

Regarding Schmidt's column: In this collection are carbon copies of the original manuscripts, Marginal notes in Schmidt's hand indicate that they were first sent to H.E. Deats, possibly for correction. There are 87 manuscripts missing from the numbered sequence, and 24 that were not numbered. These 24 were given letters A to X (Box 1 folders 39-42) when this collection was initially processed, and they are in the order that they were found. A manuscript usually consisted of three pages. Less may indicate that it is incomplete.

In 2026 an accrual was added (2015.040) which is in box 2 folders 11-25, and boxes 3-6. These are photographs in various formats including contact prints, glass plate negatives, daguerrotypes, and prints. Box 2 contains images taken for The Hunterdon County Democrat, and many of the photographs have titles written on the back. In this section many of the people in the photos are not identified, except in folders 11 and 12, which contain images of staff members of the Hunterdon County Democrat. Boxes 3 and 4 contain images of life and people both inside and outside of Hunterdon County. The folders are arranged by family and location when known. Many of these images have names written on the back and/or descriptions of the families during the time the photograph was taken. Some of the families include LaTourette, Britton, Reeves, Studdiford and Coryell. Box 5 contains pins and medals from the early to mid 1900s and box 6 contains glass plate negatives, the subjects of which are all unidentified.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

PhysicalCharacteristics
& Technical Requirements

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law. Publication and Use Please note that all reference reproductions are for personal/study use only. The possession of a reproduction of HCHS collection materials and the payment of associated reproduction service fees, does not constitute or imply permission to publish or exhibit. It is necessary for researchers to obtain separate, written permission for the publication or exhibition of all material held in the HCHS collections. All licenses are for one use only and each additional instance of use must be separately requested in writing. Usage rights fees, above and beyond reproduction costs, may apply and vary depending on whether a reproduction is for an individual, non-profit, or commercial institution and how it will be used (personal research, publication, exhibition, etc.). All reproductions must credit the Hunterdon County Historical Society as the source of the image or document.
